JUDGE REED PRESIDING

Special Judge Receives Report of Grand Jury Which Adjourns.

Judge William Reed, of Paducah, appointed by Governor James B. McCreary as a special judge to reconvene court which was adjourned last week by Judge Robert L. Stout, on account of the death of his brother-in-law, Mr. Harry Offutt, in Boston, Mass., arrived in this city Tuesday morning and reconvened the session of the June term.

The case of Aris Wiggins against Thos. McClintock, an action for the recovery of money alleged to be due on a mule transaction. The plaintiff failed to secure a judgment, but the jury allowed him the sum of $35 for the keep of the mule.

Two Commonwealth cases are assigned for trial today—Ernest Brookins, under indictment for shooting with intent to kill and Harry Prebble, who was indicted by the grand jury at the present term for detaining a woman against her will.

The grand jury made its final report Wednesday afternoon and was discharged. Eight indictments were returned and bench warrants issued by the court have been placed in the hands of the sheriff. The indictments will be withheld until the bench warrants have been served. The report was accepted by the court when the jury was discharged from further service. It is as follows:

"To the Hon. Judge of the Bourbon Circuit Court:

"May it Please Your Honor—We the June grand jury of the Bourbon Circuit Court, respectfully submit this our final report:

"We have investigated conscientiously all matters which were properly before us, or of which we had knowledge, and we have returned indictments in such cases as the evidence justified.

"We have visited the county poor farm and find it in its usual good condition, and well kept, and from the statements of the inmates themselves, they are well cared for.

"We have visited the county jail and find that it is kept in an excellent sanitary condition, and that the beds and bedding are clean. Also from the statements of the inmates, they are properly fed and cared for by the jailer.

"Having fully fulfilled our duties, we respectfully request that we be discharged.

MANSLAUGHTER VERDICT.

Newt. Arnold Convicted of Slaying Harry Bailey.

The jury in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Newton Arnold, of Bourbon, for the murder of Harry Bailey in Cynthia on January 27, last, returned verdict of manslaughter in the Pendleton Circuit Court Wednesday. The case was taken to Falmouth on a change of venue granted by Judge Fryer in the Harrison Circuit Court on March 6 last. The trial was begun Monday morning and a jury was empaneled that day and the taking of testimony begun.

The jury was as follows: R. M. Fields, F. M. Barnhill, George Dance, N. J. Cleveland, J. E. Blasingame, G. M. Davis, G. W. Wells, G. W. Hendricks, J. F. Marquardt, O. M. Florence, Elmon Young and Edward Colbert.

The Commonwealth charged that Arnold was the aggressor throughout the trouble, which arose over the attempted collection from Arnold of a claim given to Bailey as attorney. The Commonwealth witnesses testified that Arnold called Bailey a vile name and struck him, thus provoking the fight that followed.

On the other hand, the defense contended that Bailey accosted Arnold on the street with the statement that Arnold had not settled the debt. In the fight that followed Arnold claimed that he shot in self-defense, as he feared he was in danger of being choked to death.

The case went to the jury at 8:15 Tuesday night and the verdict was rendered at 10:15 o'clock Wednesday morning.

A motion for a new trial was made before Judge Fryer who overruled it. Arnold's attorneys will carry the case to the Court of Appeals.
